

Róisín Donnelly

CONTACT	AAC 263 Bentley University, 175 Forest St Waltham, MA 02452	rdonnelly@bentley.edu Cell: +1-617-308-8673
EDUCATION	BENTLEY UNIVERSITY Ph.D. Business Studies	Waltham, MA Expected 2018
	TRINITY COLLEGE, THE UNIVERSITY OF DUBLIN MSc. Finance Distinction	Dublin, Ireland 2012
	TRINITY COLLEGE, THE UNIVERSITY OF DUBLIN Bachelor in Business Studies First Class Honors and Gold Medal	Dublin, Ireland 2011
FIELDS	International Business, Strategy
WORK IN PROGRESS	Firm-Specific Institutional Distance & Locational Decisions: Incorporating Emerging Market Context & Knowledge Intensity (Presenting at AOM and AIB, 2016; Best Paper Winner, AOM)
	How locations and institutions matter: A systematic review of institutional locational advantages. Presented at SMS Special Conference, Santiago, Chile.
	Institutional Distance & Locational Decisions: A Review, Reconceptualization, and Extension Presneted at AIB NE 2015; Honorable Mention in Best Student Paper category) Contradicting Institutional Environments - The Institutional Work of Multinational Enterprises Presneted at AIB NE 2014; Winner of Best Student Paper)
WORK EXPERIENCE	Research Assistant for T. Manolova & L. Edelman, Bentley University (2014-Present). Bank Executive at the Central Bank of Ireland (2012-2013).
TEACHING EXPERIENCE	Course Instructor Bentley University: Global Strategy (Fall 2015, Spring 2016, & Fall 2016). Teaching Assistant, Trinity College Dublin: Introduction to Finance (Fall 2012)
FELLOWSHIPS AND AWARDS	Best Paper Winner at Academy of Management (2016) Accepted to GW-CIBER Summer Doctoral Institute (2016) Winner of Best Student Paper at AIB NE Conference (2014), Honorable Mention (2015) Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation Grant for women entrepreneurship research (2016) Rauch Fellowship Recipient Foundation Scholarship, Trinity College Dublin (2009-2012)
OTHER	Languages: English (Native), German. Software: R, Python, C, Bash/Zsh, \LaTeX , Stata Nationality: Irish with J1 Visa.	